Plaintiff Presidio Components, Inc. ("Presidio") hereby provides notice that the cases styled as Presidio Components, Inc. v. American Technical Ceramics Corp., Case Nos. 3:07-CV-0893 IEG NLS and 3:08-CV-0335WQH WMC, and which are both currently pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California, are substantially related to one another.¹ The two lawsuits involve the same parties, the same patent, and the same claims for patent infringement. The sole difference between the two lawsuits is the timing of the formal assignment of the patent-in-suit to Presidio relative to the date of the filing of the suit. While Presidio contends that it had standing to bring both actions, the second filed action, 3:08-CV-0335WQH WMC, was brought to eliminate any possible argument with regard to Presidio's right to enforce the patent-in-suit against defendant American Technical Ceramics Corp.
